Kelly To: Esselstyn In the Collins matter the infant children want to contest the line and want a trial at this term of court. In the Dixon matter [file #?], Judge Shaw has made a proposition to compromise giving Dixon the house and a right of way out, the Company taking the land.
120.08051917.2	From: Esselstyn To: Mr. J. W. Kelly During last term, you advised me that the case of Lola B. Collins, Estate no answer was filed so a decree judgement was granted so if this is correct, what right do they have to ask for a trial at this time? In regard to Dixon case, if Dixon wants house will consider proposition for him to remove the house from Company house, as for idea of him staying in house on company land, "THERE IS NOTHING DOING"
