

998.01141916.1	Letterhead stationary from Law Offices Berry & Grassham, Paducah, KY From: C. C. Grassham To: J. N. Esselstyn RE: Relative to the six hundred and odd acre tract of land on which Chas. Barnett and W. A. Pegrin are claiming about 100 acres. Wish you would furnish me a plat with the call of this six hundred and odd acres. (2 pages)
998.10071938.2	Letterhead stationary from Tennessee Valley Authority From: A. J. Robertson, General Auditor To: Mr. J. N. Esselstyn, Hillman Ferry Re: Please forward an itemized schedule of rates charged different type of equipment when crossing your ferry. This will allow the Authority to properly audit for payment your invoices.
998.04121939.3	From: Mrs. J. N. Esselstyn To: t. T. Henberry Eddyville Re: refund checks have not been received. If and when it is it will be distributed according to the list Mr. Esselstyn left. Letter is RE: Elbert Piercy, Clyde Piercy and Joe Dunnigan
998.04281941.4	From C. V. Croft To: Mrs. Mary M. Esselstyn Re: My option or lease on the Hillman tract of coal expires within a few days. I would like a few more days extension on lease until May 15th
998.XXXXXXXXX.5	Typewritten: Curry Tract, Lyon county Double-folded: outside of fold title: Curry Tract: Memorandum of Abstract of Title. Starts: Patented by the Commonwealth of Virginia, April 8, 1786 to James Curry ... ending with: John W. Harrison, et al., to H.L. & I.Co. Deed book "p" page 197. October 12, 1901